Thurſday, Auguſt 30. 1705.

Vienna, Auguſt 15.

BEfore we receiv'd the News here of the Victory obtain'd the 11th Inſtant by General Herbeville over the Malecontents of Hungary near Tirnau; it was reported at Court, that the Imperial Miniſters had declar'd, that the Treaty of Accomodation between the Emperor and the ſaid Malecontents, could not be begun till the Earl of Sunderland and Monſieur Almelo, the Miniſters of England and Holland and Mediators in that Affair, were both arrived; nor till the Malecontents ſhould deſiſt from 4 of their Pretentions, viz. I. That there ſhould be Guarantees of the ſaid Treaty to be concluded. II. That the Succeſſion of the Crown of Hungary ſhould be elective as formerly. III. That the Laws made in the Reign of King Andrew ſhould be reeſtabliſh'd in their ancient Force. IV. And that German Garriſons ſhall not be put into the fortified Places of Hungary. The Count of Caſtelbarco is nominated by the Emperor to go his Envoy to the Duke of Savoy; in the Room of the Count of Aversperg lately deceas'd. The 11th Inſtant the Courier that was ſent to Conſtantinople, to notify to the Ottoman Court the Death of the Emperor Leopold, return'd hither, with an Aſſurance from the Porte that they are determin'd to maintain the Treaty of Peace made at Carlowitz.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Auguſt 18.

Ausburg, Aug. 10. Within a few days the Count de Truchſes has in the Emperor's Name receiv'd Homage of the Town of Memmingen, and from thence is gone to Kempten and Kaufbeyeren on the ſame Account: The 13th he is expected here, where great Preparations are making for his Reception. Braunau, Schardingen, and all the other fortified Places of Bavaria that border upon Auſtria, are by order from the Court of Vienna to be demoliſh'd; and the Works of the firſt mention'd Place are already demoliſhing.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Auguſt 25.

Ausburg, Aug. 17. The Count de Truchſes, the Emperor's high Commiſſioner, arriv'd here the 13th Inſtant, and had a magnificent Reception. Yeſterday about 10 a Clock in the Morning, he receiv'd in the Emperor's Name, the Homage of our Magiſtrates, and all our Citizens, the latter being drawn up in Arms in the Wine-market, with the uſual Formalities; the People ſhouting long live the Emperor Joſeph, and a tripple Diſcharge being made by the Cannon on our Ramports, and by the Burghers with their ſmall Arms. In the Afternoon, the City gave his Excellency a ſumptuous Entertainment, and the Emperor's Health was drank; ſeveral Pieces of Cannon that were drawn on purpoſe to the Wine-market firing frequently. This Morning his Excellency ſet out from hence to go to receive Homage of the Town of Donawert; and at his departure was ſaluted with a tripple Diſcharge of the Artillery and of our Burghers ſmall Arms.

Sluys in Flanders, Aug. 12. The 10th Inſtant General Spar decamp'd from Maldegen, and came and poſted himſelf with the Body of Troops he commands at Ooſtwinckel. Yeſterday he came to Middelbourg; and 'tis talk'd that to day he will march to his old Camp at Riemen. He has been reinforc'd in his march from Maldegen by 2 Battallions. We are inform'd, that part of the Troops which the Enemy had drawn together to oppoſe him under the Command of the Count de la Motte, are ſent back to their former Quarters, ſince he retir'd out of the Spaniſh Flanders; and that a great Number of Pioneers are ſummon'd in by the Enemy, to repair their old Line between Ypres and Comene. The Treaty for the Contributions to be paid to the States General by the Spaniſh Flanders, being concluded and ratified on both ſides, the Hoſtages which General Spar had taken out of that Province, are already ſent home agen; but thoſe of French Flanders are detain'd ſtill, till the Contributions demanded of that Country be ſettled.

Briſtol, Auguſt 27. To day arriv'd here the Hayward Galley Richard Sims Maſter, and the Charles Brigantine William Morris Maſter, both from Montſerrat, but laſt from Carrickfergus in Ireland: Where they lay ſome time, but left that Port on Friday Evening laſt, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ship the Arundel; which is not yet come into Kings-Road.
